From: Financial Times Briefing <FT@emailbriefings.ft.com>
To: ehbarak1@gmail.com
CC:
Date: Fri, 7/3/2015 7:29:56 AM
Subject: In today's FT: Banker pay rebounds butonly for a few, Greece needs...

To view this email as a webpage, click here

Friday July 03 2015

UK HOMEPAGE

Banker pay rebounds but only for a few

JPMorgan and Morgan Stanley set pace few are willing to match

Greece needs €60bn in new aid, says IMF

Debt sustainability analysis points to deterioration in public finances under Syriza government

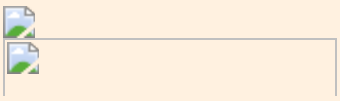
RBS faces $13bn bill, says court filing

Assertion over mis-selling claims as UK prepares for share sale

VIDEO

3 Numbers with Lex: UK housebuilders

First-time buyers in the UK are having to pay five times their salaries for a property and house builders, such as Persimmon, are doing very nicely. Lex's Jonathan Eley looks at how long this can last.



US HOMEPAGE

BP settles Deepwater spill for $18.7bn

Payments spread over 18 years under deal with US authorities

War hero Jim Webb joins White House race

Former Virginia senator runs for Democratic nomination

Steyer challenges Koch on climate change

Billionaire political donors gear up for 2016 White House battle

EUROPE HOMEPAGE

Glencore holds oil talks in Iran

Trader poised to help Tehran rejoin international fold if western sanctions are lifted

US employers hire apace but pay stalls

Weak wages muddy waters as 223,000 jobs are created in June

Egyptian army hits at foreign media

Military says overseas journalistsacting to reduce ‘morale’ by distorting Isis attack death toll

ASIA HOMEPAGE

Fast Asia Open - What's next for China stocks?

Bank chiefs who top the pay table

Dimon and Gorman shot past Goldman Sachs’ Blankfein in 2014

Robot-related deaths rare — and getting rarer

Next-generation ‘cobots’ are designed to work safely alongside humans

WORLD NEWS

German carmakers raise fears over Brexit

Manufacturers worry about the loss of one of their biggest export markets if UK leaves the EU

ECJ judge faces potential censure

Italian embroiled in dispute over doubling the size of the institution’s judiciary

Greek crisis a political gift for Rajoy

Spanish economic turnround contrasts with turbulence in Athens

Gene therapy offers cystic fibrosis hope

British universities achieve positive clinical results in treatment of patients with killer disease

UK considers air strikes on Isis in Syria

Defence secretary cites ‘strong case’ to bomb militants

COMPANIES NEWS

BP settlement puts a value on clarity

Deal over worst US offshore oil spill hastens end to wrangling

Petrobras corruption losses may be larger

Prosecutor says state-owned oil company’s R$6.2bn estimate is ‘conservative’

Fiat Chrysler criticised over recalls

Carmaker rebuked over tardiness in notifying drivers of faults

YouTube downplays Facebook threat

Market is rapidly expanding and there is plenty of room for companies to grow, says content head

Johnson waxes lyrical

Mayor of London armed with a metaphor du jour at hedge fund party

MARKETS

Dollar and bond yields fall after US data

Stock markets nervous ahead of Greek vote

ECB adds state companies to QE buying

Speculation central bank moving closer to outright purchases of corporate bonds

Kurdistan bond sale beset by Iraqi doubts

Government expected to pay one of highest borrowing costs in sovereign markets

China rule changes fail to buoy market

Regulators seek to end vicious cycle of margin calls and forced liquidation

Diverging fortunes split commodity markets

Investment flows and performance reveal different paths

COMMENT

Greece should vote for the rule of law

There remains a conviction that the future belongs to the EU's model of shared sovereignty

Tsipras has earned his punishment

The Greek people are enduring the consequences of their prime minister's childish misbehaviour

A papal call for an environmental balance

The subtle shift from entitlement to awareness could work wonders, writes Eugene Linden

Make tech disrupters fix diversity issues

The sector's powerful white men can make the case for inclusion, writes Helen Lewis

Puerto Rico crisis in US back yard

The problem bedevilling the island is not just its $72bn debt but any obvious way to restructure it

MANAGEMENT

The reverend on a showbiz mission

Brazilian-born vicar Peterson Feital has a grand plan for workers in London's creative industries

Apple Music: the spirit of the iPod

From Beats 1 to personalised touch, entertainment app packs in everything as it responds to Spotify

Casio's veteran leader eyes the exit

Kazuo Kashio is preparing his son to take the helm

Manage email | Forward this email

Feedback | Manage portfolio

Subscribe to the FT

Follow the FT

Unsubscribe | My Account | RSS | Privacy Policy | About Us | Help

© THE FINANCIAL TIMES LTD 2015

You have received this email because you have signed up from the NBE preference page.

This email was sent by a company owned by Pearson plc, registered office at 80 Strand, London WC2R 0RL.

Registered in England and Wales with company number 53723.